The Best.

The two Sunday school conventions yesterday—at Westminster and Baptist chapels—were well attended, considering the warm weather.

Andrew Wilson, father of Mrs. James

Freeman, has been quite ill at Moscow,

He was reported dangerously ill Sunday, but he is better to-day. He is past 82 years of age.

Marriage licenses were granted to-day to Christian Hanna, of Galva, Ill., and Miss Rosa Beale, of Michigan, and to

Leonard Capps and Miss Anna Morrow, both of Mt. Pleasant, Ill.

Strava's Attorney L. R. Miller to-day issued a warrant for the arrest of Frank

Bishop for smothering and breaking Jesse Johnson's nose at an ice cream party at the home of John Bishop on Saturday evening.

A lady, whose hair came out with every combing, was induced to give

Agnes Hair Vigor a faithful trial. She did so, and not only was the loss of her hair checked, but a new and vigorous growth soon succeeded that which had gone.

Albert & Co. have arrived in the city and located on North Water street with a merry-go-round and revolving panoramas which surpasses anything ever before seen in Decatur. By all means pay them a visit and see this wonderful invention. 24-25

A STRANGER NAMED Jacob Strauss, an iron molder, had one of the best crushed by a car at Sadors on Saturday. He was sent to Decatur to serve exposure to Sadors township, and Sunday he was sent to the Mason county poor farm, where Dr. Tobey with assistance amputated part of the foot.

DIED IN COLORADO.

Winthrop Gastman Passed Away at 6 O'clock This Morning.

This forenoon this telegram was received in Decatur:

Furness, Colo., July 24.

Dr. J. N. Brown, Decatur, Ill.

Winthrop died peacefully at 6 o'clock this morning. Start home to-night.

E. A. GASTMAN.

The death of Winthrop Gastman was not unexpected. He was the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gastman, and had lived until August 1904, he would have been 25 years of age. He was born in Decatur and here he took the full high school course, but he did not graduate. He entered the preparatory department at Ann Arbor, and subsequently graduated in electrical engineering from Michigan University. Soon after graduation he began practical work at Brooklyn, New York, later going to St. Wayne, Ind. From St. Wayne he went to Chicago, and while in that city following his occupation he became sick.

That was in the winter of 1901-2. The affliction quickly developed into consumption, and although everything possible was done for him Winthrop steadily failed. He went to Arizona last November, accompanied by his brother Floyd, who is now at his home in this city. Over a month ago Winthrop left Arizona and went to Pueblo, Colo.

It was thought that he was growing stronger in Colorado, but relief was only temporary. In answer to a letter Superintendent of Pueblo came the day ago that Mr. Gastman will probably arrive in Decatur Wednesday noon or night with the remains of his son. The hour of the funeral will be announced in due time.

The death of Winthrop in the young manhood, while not unexpected, is a severe blow to his parents, who had loved him kindly and lovingly, and had aided and encouraged him in his emulation to become an electrical engineer.

In their sorrow the parents and family will have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

Sheriff Fox and His Wheel.

Sunday evening Sheriff Fox was out again on his bicycle taking more individual lessons, and he had his fourth streak of bad luck. He was riding along in zigzag fashion on South Water street, near the corner of Decatur, and suddenly he dropped over on the boulevard, just as

Uncle Tom Albert was about to get out of his wagon to deliver some milk. The sight of the sheriff taking a header was too much for the horse, and he reared up on his hind legs, the jar throwing Mr.

Albert out of his seat. Fortunately Mr.

Albert was not seriously hurt. He was able to lecture Fox in two languages, and would have fined him and made him pay the costs on the spot had he been a justice of the peace. If Sheriff Fox continues to wrestle with that wheel, some day he will cause one or more of the electric street cars to run away.

Death and Burial.

On Sunday morning at 4:25 o'clock

Beatrice, the 2-year old daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. J. W. Sargent, died at their home, corner of North Church and West Cerro Gordo streets. The child had been sick about three weeks, and for the last been a great sufferer. She bore her affliction with christian resignation and fortitude, and was ready for the final
